

Terms and conditions for guarantee extension of Oberaigner Automotive GmbH, 18299 Laage, Germany, Roman-Oberaigner-Allee 1

Version: April 2021

This document describes conditions for guarantee extension by modifying certain contents of the guarantee conditions of Oberaigner Automotive GmbH. Contents not referred to therefore continue to apply unchanged. The terms and conditions for guarantee extension apply in addition to the guarantee terms and conditions if guarantee extension has been agreed through the purchase.

"§2 Duration and scope of the guarantee" of the guarantee conditions is replaced by the following:

§2 Duration and scope of the guarantee

1. The guarantee is limited exclusively to components or parts that have been installed by Oberaigner and to work performed directly at Oberaigner.
2. New vehicles (without registration): The guarantee period comprises – depending on which occurs first – either 60 months or kilometrage of 300,000 kilometres. The guarantee period begins with the first registration of the vehicle, but no later than 12 months after delivery of the vehicle to the first purchaser.
3. Second-hand vehicles (with registration): The guarantee period comprises – depending on which occurs first – either 60 months or kilometrage of 300,000 kilometres. The guarantee begins with the date of delivery at the Oberaigner factory (Rostock-Laage/Germany).
4. The guarantee during the term of – whichever occurs first – either 24 months or kilometrage of 120,000 kilometres is valid worldwide. The guarantee during the term specified in §2 (2) or (3) that extends beyond the term of – whichever occurs first – either 24 months or kilometrage of 120,000 kilometres is valid in the member states of the European Union, as well as for journeys to countries in the European Economic Area (EEA) and Switzerland that last up to 90 consecutive days in each case.
